

As a professional membership organization for cable TV marketers, we object to the removal of the "established business relationship" qualification for faxes. Further it is an undue burden to require associations to obtain written consent from members to send faxes for conferences and other services to our members. This rule would make it difficult to renew existing members.